

Three Giffin, Winning, Cohen & Bodewes, P.C. Attorneys

Recognized as Emerging Lawyers

Chicago (January 18, 2017) — Three members of Giffin, Winning, Cohen & Bodewes, P.C. have been honored in a new list of the up-and-coming lawyers who best exhibit “exceptional character” and “outstanding aptitude” in their respective fields of practice, as determined by the top private practice lawyers in Illinois.

The law firm’s three attorneys who have been included on the inaugural list are Jason E. Brokaw, Abby L. Sgro and Matthew R. Trapp.

In creating Emerging Lawyers, Law Bulletin Publishing Company, through its Leading Lawyers division, asked its highly selective group of the state’s top attorneys to recommend the people who would most likely lead the profession in the coming years.

The Emerging Lawyers designation is reserved for lawyers who have not surpassed age 40 or who have practiced law for no more than 10 years. Emerging Lawyers account for less than 2 percent of a state’s registered attorneys, and only professionals already identified as Leading Lawyers may select them.

“As our statewide surveys continue to show, the Illinois legal community is aware of the high quality of legal professionals at Giffin, Winning, Cohen & Bodewes, P.C.,” said Scott Anderson, director of Leading Lawyers and publisher of Leading Lawyers magazine.
